Betterways Starry Nite in Zion

Betterways Starry Nite in Zion aka Aquila DOB December 12, 2004 | Black/Cream Plush

sire: Konrad Braveheart of Zion | dam: GV bCh Zion-Chaos' Spirit of Megan

It is often said that a shepherd has the "look of an eagle". That is why Aquila has her name. She was named after the constellation Aquila or "the Eagle". Although she has a piercing look, she is a calm and peaceful dog, taking everything in stride. The precious soft-tempered Meg daughter is sweet as candy and will love you to pieces. She is the classic couch potato and just hangs with the family, but is ready to go in an instant if invited.
